Baccarat's history is said to go all the way back to medieval Italy.

The origins of the card game are debatable, but most believe it was created in the 1400s by a man named Felix Falguierein or Felix Falguiere.

He called the game "baccara", which translates to "zero", a s all tens and face cards were valued at zero (the French spelling "baccara") Tj T* BT /F

In today's game there is one dealer, bets are typically placed against the house, and the house also fills in the banker role.

From Italy, baccarat travelled to France, where it was known as Chemin de Fer, o r "Chemmy";

King Charles VIII and his noblemen loved the game, and Chemin de Fer remained a hit with the French aristocracy for centuries.

As more time passed, baccarat cropped up in South America and in the Caribbean.
